Clackamas County Workforce System Resources

Things have been very tough for many people during the last year, including job loss, reduced hours, and significant changes to the way we work and live. The document below has descriptions and contact information for various resources available to Clackamas County residents. It is broken down by category and each link has contact information if you would like to learn more about opportunities and resources. Many of these programs are related to employment and job-training, but can help answer questions or connect you to other resources that better meet your needs. If someone's name and contact information is listed, please do not hesitate to reach out to them – they want to help, even if it means connecting you to someone else. Please note that COVID-19 may have impacted some organizations' hours of operations or ability to deliver all listed services at this time - you are encouraged to call or contact an agency to learn more.

Below is a brief reference guide for services and resources in Clackamas County. You may also refer to 211info.org for additional information or assistance, click here: <https://www.211info.org/>
