Workshop Descriptions and Registration Links

Registering for Workshops: The title of each workshop listed above is an active link. By clicking on it, it will take you to a registration page. You will need to complete the registration form to attend the workshop. Once you complete the form, you will receive a confirmation email. This will include the name, date, and time of your workshop, as well as a link for your workshop. You should save this link on your calendar so you can easily access it the day of the workshop. You will need to register for each workshop you plan to attend. These will be held on Zoom, Skype, or other digital platforms – no account is required, but your internet browser must be compatible with these platforms. Google Chrome, FireFox, Safari, and Explorer are recommended. For questions or registration issues, contact workshop facilitators.

WorkSource Oregon Virtual Workshops: These workshops require participants to register at least 12 hours in advance.

Interview Workshop: Are you landing interviews, but the job? Are situational questions keeping you up at night? How do you answer a question about your last employer if you were terminated? Get answers to these questions and more!

Virtual Interviews: Can you easily move about in a virtual space? Is your appearance, background, voice, and tone ideal for the virtual setting? If not, let us help you build skill and confidence for your next virtual interview

Soft Skills: It's been said, "You're hired for your hard skills and fired for your soft skills"—but what is a soft skill and why it is important in finding, and keeping, a great job? In this workshop, we will introduce soft skills, as well as help you discover which of these soft skills are your strengths.

Resumes: Learn techniques and strategies to create or refurbish your resume for industry specific, job tailored, and unique to you uses. Discover tricks that snag the hiring teams attention!

Networking: Branding, an elevator speech and LinkedIn—how will they support your job search? Let us help you discover and navigate the new, virtual networking environment, while reinforcing your in-person networking skills.

Registration for all WorkSource Oregon workshops (English and Spanish) can be done using this link.
Check the State of Oregon website for on-going virtual hiring events and employer spotlights.

Things have been very tough for many people during the last year, including job loss, reduced hours, and significant changes to the way we work and live. The document below has descriptions and contact information for various resources available to Clackamas County residents. It is broken down by category and each link has contact information if you would like to learn more about opportunities and resources. Many of these programs are related to employment and job-training, but can help answer questions or connect you to other resources that better meet your needs. If someone's name and contact information is listed, please do not hesitate to reach out to them – they want to help, even if it means connecting you to someone else. Please note that COVID-19 may have impacted some organizations' hours of operations or ability to deliver all listed services at this time - you are encouraged to call or contact an agency to learn more.

Information on WorkSource Clackamas

WorkSource Clackamas has resumed employment and training services for Unemployment Insurance recipients and other jobseekers. If you are interested in learning more about employment and training programs and other resources, contact Wendi Chrisman at: Wendi.S.CHRISMAN@oregon.gov or call 971-673-6400, or click here.

WorkSource Clackamas (WSC) is the county's "one stop shop" for training, education, and employment support services; these are available to Clackamas County residents ages 14 and older who can legally work in the US.

WSC services are provided by multiple organizations working in partnership to support individuals as they develop new skills, search for employment, change careers, or enroll in training/education programs.

Services can include technology access, resume development, interview prep, job search assistance, career exploration, adult education and GED services, English-language acquisition, virtual hiring events, internship and apprenticeship programs, financial literacy, and training/education programs. Some individuals may qualify for wrap-around supports, such as food assistance programs, transportation assistance, or tuition assistance.

Accommodations and assistive services are available for veterans, people with disabilities, youth, people 55 or older, English-language learners, immigrants and refugees, rural resident, low-income individuals, and more.

For more information, call:
971-673-6400

Information on Unemployment Insurance (UI)

Certain unemployment benefit requirements were paused or changed during the pandemic. They are being phased back in this summer for those receiving regular UI and Pandemic Emergency Unemployment Compensation (PEUC). This includes required work-search activities in order to maintain benefits. To learn more about important information and dates, click here.

Here's How You Start Meeting UI and PEUC Work-Search Requirements

Register and complete your Job Seeker account in iMatchSkills® by Saturday, June 19. You must complete both steps for your regular unemployment benefits to continue:

- Step 1: Complete your registration.
- Step 2: Create your Job Seeker account in iMatchSkills®.
***This includes your work history and occupations you are seeking.

Call any WorkSource Oregon office or follow our step-by-step guide if you need help registering in iMatchSkills® or call the Language Access Line if you need help in a language other than English.
