Workshop Descriptions and Registration Links

Registering for Workshops: The title of each workshop listed above is an active link. By clicking on it, it will take you to a registration page. You will need to complete the registration form to attend the workshop. Once you complete the form, you will receive a confirmation email. This will include the name, date, and time of your workshop, as well as a link for your workshop. You should save this link on your calendar so you can easily access it the day of the workshop. You will need to register for each workshop you plan to attend. These will be held on Zoom, Skype, or other digital platforms – no account is required, but your internet browser must be compatible with these platforms. Google Chrome, FireFox, Safari, and Explorer are recommended. For questions or registration issues, contact workshop facilitators.

WorkSource Oregon Virtual Workshops: These workshops require participants to register at least 12 hours in advance.

Interview Workshop: Are you landing interviews, but the job? Are situational questions keeping you up at night? How do you answer a question about your last employer if you were terminated? Get answers to these questions and more!

Virtual Interviews: Can you easily move about in a virtual space? Is your appearance, background, voice, and tone ideal for the virtual setting? If not, let us help you build skill and confidence for your next virtual interview

Soft Skills: It's been said, "You're hired for your hard skills and fired for your soft skills"—but what is a soft skill and why it is important in finding, and keeping, a great job? In this workshop, we will introduce soft skills, as well as help you discover which of these soft skills are your strengths.

Resumes: Learn techniques and strategies to create or refurbish your resume for industry specific, job tailored, and unique to you uses. Discover tricks that snag the hiring teams attention!

Networking: Branding, an elevator speech and LinkedIn—how will they support your job search? Let us help you discover and navigate the new, virtual networking environment, while reinforcing your in-person networking skills.

Registration for all WorkSource Oregon workshops (English and Spanish) can be done using this link.
Check the State of Oregon website for on-going virtual hiring events and employer spotlights.

Things have been very tough for many people during the last year, including job loss, reduced hours, and significant changes to the way we work and live. The document below has descriptions and contact information for various resources available to Clackamas County residents. It is broken down by category and each link has contact information if you would like to learn more about opportunities and resources. Many of these programs are related to employment and job-training, but can help answer questions or connect you to other resources that better meet your needs. If someone's name and contact information is listed, please do not hesitate to reach out to them – they want to help, even if it means connecting you to someone else. Please note that COVID-19 may have impacted some organizations' hours of operations or ability to deliver all listed services at this time - you are encouraged to call or contact an agency to learn more.

WorkSource Clackamas

WorkSource Clackamas has resumed employment and training services for jobseekers and other Clackamas County residents. If you are interested in learning more about employment and training programs and other resources, contact Wendi Chrisman at: Wendi.S.CHRISMAN@oregon.gov or call 971-673-6400, or click here.

WorkSource Clackamas (WSC) is a “one-stop shop” for training, education, and employment services for Clackamas County residents aged 14 or older who can legally work in the United States. Services are provided by multiple state agencies and community organizations working together under one roof, and can include: access to technology; job search assistance and career exploration; help with resumes and cover letters; enrollment in training and certification programs; skills development workshops; case management services; tuition assistance; wrap-around supports; and more. Customers may also be referred to other community partners for other resources. Services and resources vary and are dependent on customer background, experience, and availability.

To learn more call 971-673-6400 or click here.

WSC hours are 9:00am – 4:15PM, Monday – Friday, by appointment only. For the health and safety of our community, appointments are required and limited to 60 minutes. Customers are encouraged to wear face coverings while in the facility, and to call ahead of time to take care of preliminary registration steps.

Please Note: WSC is NOT an Unemployment Insurance claims center. WSC cannot process UI claims. WSC phones and computers do not provide quicker access to a UI Claims Specialist. UI recipients are encouraged to continue using the same UI number and digital platforms provided by the Oregon Employment Department. More information on those numbers and important links can be found below and by clicking here.

Information on Unemployment Insurance (UI)

Starting in June 2021, unemployed workers filing regular Unemployment Insurance (UI) and Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA) – along with other select benefits programs – will now be required to log weekly job search activities to continue receiving their benefits. Recipients will be required to activate or create an iMatchSkills Profile and log a specific number of hours spent looking for work, applying to jobs, or participating in skills development opportunities. To learn about what qualifies as a work search activity, click here.

For more information on important dates, important links, important phone numbers, and a step-by-step guide on how to start meeting work search requirements, visit this website. You can also submit questions or request help online by using this online contact form. For non-native English speakers, you can receive additional help by using the WorkSource Oregon Language Access Line: 833-685-0845.

Please Note: If you receive a UI letter recommending a Welcome Conversation with a WorkSource Oregon staff member, do not show up to the WorkSource Clackamas Center. Appointments are still required. You can call and schedule an appointment if you need an in-person service, or you can have the welcome conversation by phone or by a digital platform. You can schedule an appointment for an in-person service or have your Welcome Conversation by phone – just call 971-673-6400.
